“ Kids...I cannot begin to tell you how much Shirli meant to me. We shared so much fun in card club and laughed outrageously in the red hat society. She was and is one of those people that enter your heart and never leave. I will miss her greatly and will think often of her....will look forward to seeing her again in heaven. I know you loved her and she loved you as much as any mother could love her children....we are all so blessed by her life.

“ Shirli was the big sister I never had, and she relished that role. She offered great advice, was loads of fun, and gave of her loving heart unconditionally. There were serious times when we talked of living life with no regrets, even when that meant that choices in the moment were not always easy. And then there were times we laughed. . . oh my goodness, how we laughed! I will find her in heaven some day by the sound of her laughter. Her family was her greatest joy. To them, I offer my sympathy and my prayer that you are comforted and blessed in knowing her impact on the world. Thank you for sharing her with us.

“ My sympathy to the Wagners and Wickers. Shirli and I were backyard neighbors for about 12 years and nothing happened without at least one of the Wagners. Lots of curls and lots of energy plus backyard tents is my memory of Shirli.
