“ "The Herald Bulletin looks back at stories from the Anderson Daily Bulletin and The Anderson Herald newspapers.

10 Years Ago, Week of March 15, 1999

March 15 — With her boyfriend convicted of and imprisoned for battering her, a distraught Christine Penrod, 19, of Anderson ended her life when she stepped in front of a westbound Conrail train. Before going to prison, the boyfriend, Shonne Swearingen, was already on probation for battering Penrod."

“ Jan, I'm so sorry to hear of Shonne's death. I will always the way Shonne and your other kids pitched in to help at events for the Federation of Families and seemed to enjoy themselves at the pitch-in dinners and other outings -- and even our "workdays". Please know that you are in my prayers.
