“ I first met Sidney and Phyllis when they came down to AZ. It was my family's absolute pleasure to of made friends with such wonderful people. He married Cory and Natalie in a wonderful ceremony. How blessed to have your grandpa marry you. Sidney spent Thanksgiving with us one year and at that time he told me he worried about Jenny being alone, and I told him not to worry, she spends all the major holidays with us and she is family to us. I think that reassured him that she was o.k. I'll miss the conversations we had when he would visit. He was a truly all american great man. He will be missed!!! My condolences to all of his family, you were truly blessed with a great father, grandfather, husband and brother.
