“ Please accept our heartfelt sympathy. We thoroughly enjoyed Steve & Cheryle. They 'subbed' for our Euchre Club, and attended our Super Bowl party this year when the Colts won. Steve cheered for the Colts, while Cheryle was a true Chicago Bears fan, and never gave up on them. She added so much to that party by wearing her entire Bears outfit...striped pants and all! They were such proud parents and grandparents, and will be sadly missed. God bless and comfort their friends and family.

“ Disbelief is the only word I can use to describe hearing the loss of my dear friend Cheryle, whom I've known since second grade. Cheryle and I walked to grade school each day, went to high school and one year of college together. She was my Maid of Honor and we named our kids after each other. My husband and I loved Steve from the beginning and the four of us stayed in touch over all the 40-plus years of marriage. I had an email from Steve as recently as Saturday, the day before they were killed. They were wonderful people, good parents and sure loved their grandchildren. They still had a lot of living to do and will be missed by everyone. There is a hole in my heart and I will miss them terribly.

“ It is with great sadness that I am writing for the woman I am named. Cheryle and Steve have been part of my life through my mom and dad's stories and then later, through my own relationship with Cheryle Diane. May their zest for life inspire us all.
