“ I had the privilege along with her mother of raising Steve's biological daughter however in every sense of the word she is my daughter. She is beautiful inside and out and has always exceeded our expectations beyond measure and words. I always pitied Steve and his family for not wanting to be part of her life but as time went on I knew she deserved so much more. Rest In Peace Steve. Robert Reardon

“ Ha, they put his dog in the obituary but not his daughter. The family sucks as bad as he did. He was a piece of crap who walked out on his wife and daughter. He deserved what he got, a cheap life and a death that no one cares about. His wife and daughter went on to great things.....he lived in an airstream with a scooter. I would love for any of the piece of crap family to contact me. I hope your spot in hell is as lonely as the life you created. I look forward to pissing on your grave.
