“ We only had the pleasure of meeting Steve one time, for Conner and Victoria's reception. He was so proud of his Lego collection, my 10 yr old grandson Evan was in seventh heaven. Steve took the time to show Evan all his special ones and even gave him some mini-figures. You could tell he loved his family and the family loved him. I know words cannot help ease the pain of such a terrible loss, but I know your years of happy memories will help to get you all through the rough days ahead.
