“ Hey Brad. I don't really know what to be said in English. But from the bottom of my heart I tell you this: May God bring you resignation on these hard times. You were blessed with the priviledge of seeing your mom grow old; the cycle of life never stops and is time to let go. I would like to be able to be at the funneral to give you a supportive hug. Even though our paths have split long time ago, I still consider you my friend. We shared a relatively brief working time, but yet,I learned a lot from you and I am thankful for that. That serious face of yours may decieve a lot of people, but the ones we were around you, know the nice guy you are. God bless you and your family always. Sincerely Javo
