“ I met Sue in October, 1974. Over the years, she made me laugh most of the time and she could be very direct if she thought you were headed in the wrong direction. Last Friday, I checked on her and asked her if she needed anything. She said she would love to have some homemade spaghetti and garlic bread. I asked her if she wanted meat sauce, yes, she did, but not a bunch of meat. Well, she didn't wait for it,(I think she was just too tired), so in the New World, I'll have her homage spaghetti and garlic bread waiting for her, but it will have to be marinara sauce. 😊

My deepest sympathy for the family. I worked with Sue when we were very young at TWay in Elwood. She was a lovely person. She had a strong faith, I know that she is at peace. 🙏
