“ Condolences to the family of my brother by god and dear friend Terence McPhaul. I will miss him with all my heart and soul. Terence and I had a bond that was unbelievable from my daughter and youth pride.

Terence, worked tirelessly to assure that the needs of all the children and young adults of Youth Pride where met and he went beyond to make them feel loved. He was passionate about anything that he did. My friend is gone and my heart is heavy. Wish we could have one more conversation and send love to each other.

To his family he spoke very highly about you all and mom he loved you with all his heart.

“ I am totally devastated I just got a phone call this morning telling me he had passed, we had been really close friends since 1994 and we talked literally every single night since then and he always called me on my Birthday and Holidays and I just literally called his phone 2 days ago ! I saw him a month or so ago and he came and picked me up and took me to dinner out to Lenox Square we had so much fun. Remembering all the laughter we had on our phone calls makes me smile. He got me thru my Divorce and so much more and I am going to truly miss him. This hurts.....RIP MY DEAR FRIEND ! I am glad that on our last meeting I hugged you and told you I loved you.
