Linda, this is Natasha's mom. Your dad was Pastor when she was born and also dedicated her. They became reacquainted when she was at Lakeholm. We loved your parents.

“ After Aunt Brenda read my question about your Great Grandma Cottrell's little stock ornaments, unsolicited she sent me one of the ones Grandma had given her. It will ever be a memorial on my tree of sweet Thea Shae and the legacy of her family. She is indeed singing with the angels now. Prayers for her dear mother and father as you miss her on this side of the veil. From your cousin, Karen.

“ Your beautiful little one brought nations together in prayer. I prayed so much for her that I loved her without ever meeting her. I continue to lift you all up in prayer, and I look forward to the day when Thea can give us all the grandest tour imaginable.
