“ Dear Family - I regret the loss of Tom. We shared an apartment together for at least one year while we were at Butler - 1974-75. He worked hard to get his pharmacy degree - I remember many study sessions doing equations and generic equivalents. I am very sorry for your loss - we had many good times together. Max - Butler '76

“ Anita, Ashley and Samantha: Our heartfelt condolences go out to you and your family at this difficult time. Tom was a wonderful man - a great dad and softball coach. The years of the girls playing softball seem so long ago but all those memories have come flooding back in the past couple of days. Jen was looking for something Saturday afternoon and came across the MVP softball that she had gotten while playing on B&B that Tom had signed for her. She thought so much of him and along with the rest of us are totally devastated. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all.
