

Thomas J. St. Clair

December 1, 1957 - July 8, 2025

Thomas J. St. Clair, 67, of Anderson, passed away peacefully at home on July 8, 2025. He was born on December 1, 1957, in Anderson, Indiana, the son of James and Rita St. Clair.

Tom was a devout husband, father, and grandfather. He would have given the shirt off his back if it meant his family could get ahead. He enjoyed talking about his kids, real estate, the stock market and rockets. Or really anything. He had the gift of gab and never knew a stranger. Tom was always up for an adventure - riding in a hot air balloon, visiting the country or going to a car show. He had many talents but he had an eye for finding fixer upper houses and of course glass blowing. There wasn't much he couldn't fix or a distance he couldn't ride his bike to. He had a great sense of humor and was always trying to find the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. Most importantly he had a belief in God and wanted the same of all of his family and friends.

Tom is survived by his loving wife of 48 years, Christa St. Clair; son, Mark (Kay) St. Clair; daughter, Sarah (Devon) Humphries; grandchildren, Leah, Noah, and Hallie. Also, surviving are his brother-in-laws, Gary (Carla) Copeland and Keith (Patty) Copeland, and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, July 15, 2025, 10:00 am to 12:00 pm at St. Ambrose Catholic Church, Anderson, IN.

Mass of Christian Burial will follow visitation at 12:00 pm at the church with Rev. David Hellmann officiating.

Burial will take place in the East Maplewood Cemetery, Anderson.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

“ Tom used to drop into the Anderson Fine Arts Center to talk with those of us on staff. We always enjoyed a good visit talking about Art and Glass, the center in general and his studio out on MLK. Will never forget his great smile and his talent. Sending comforting thoughts in the days ahead. Deb Stapleton, former Director
