Tribute Wall

“ I can't believe Tom is gone. There are so many good memories of when we were kids. I remember when we all dressed up as cowboys at our house. Tom and Mary would have been about seven. We have a picture of all of us dressed up. We always had such fun when we got together. I have heard it said that cousins are your first friends and that was certainly true for us. I hope that the memories of those special times bring you comfort in these difficult days. Tom has gone on to spend time with his dad, uncles, and grandparents. We will see him again.
