

Timothy David Hunt

October 3, 1950 - June 27, 2022

Timothy David Hunt was born October 3, 1950, in Anderson, Indiana. Tim died peacefully at his home recently.

He was a kind and generous brother and loving uncle.

Tim retired from Guide Lamp after 30 years as a journeyman pipe fitter. He earned an Associate's Degree from Ball State in Philosophy.

Later in life, he owned and operated a coin shop in Pendleton, Indiana.

Tim is survived by his brother, Joe (Cheryl) Hunt; niece, Bailey Hunt and a nephew, Evan (Elyse) Hunt.

His parents, David and Dawna Hunt preceded him in death.

In lieu of flowers, please send any donations to the Madison County Humane Society.

Cremation was chosen and a burial of ashes will take place at Grovelawn Cemetery, Pendleton, in July.

“ Curley delivered one last message to us:

*I close my eyes, only for a moment, and the moment's gone
All my dreams, pass before my eyes, a curiosity
Dust in the wind, all they are is dust in the wind.*

*Same old song, just a drop of water in an endless sea
All we do, crumbles to the ground, though we refuse to see
Dust in the wind, all we are is dust in the wind*

*(Now) don't hang on, nothing lasts forever but the earth and sky
It slips away, and all your money won't another minute buy.*

*Dust in the wind, all we are is dust in the wind
Dust in the wind, everything is dust in the wind.*

Appreciate this day and remember to Love one another.

“ Tim was a great friend for 44 years and one of the kindest souls I've had the pleasure to have known. If everyone treated people like he did, the world would be a much nicer place for us all.

Rest in Peace, Ole Buddy and I'll see you on the other side. God's Speed, Dog.

Love you, Man.

“ Tim was my first cousin. He was a friendly and had a contagious laugh. He enjoyed life. I enjoyed golfing and fishing with him when we were younger. I was so glad to see him recently. He will be missed. My condolences to Joe and family. Tim is in my thoughts and prayers
