“ Many memories with Tim, since he was my brother's best man and good friend. Lots of laughs and lots of sports talk! One of my favorite is Tim crashing through an outfield fence to catch a ball...Amy yelling fence! fence!...and he still went right through it...I think he even caught it! Another favorite...Santa Clause! He was a great Santa! You will be missed Tim, but we will laugh again!

“ We were very busy the day before Thanksgiving and Tim was helping me sack an order. We were trying to get this large turkey in a paper bag and it ripped and we lost the turkey on the floor. We have laughed about that for several years. RIP Tim
