“ To the family and friends of Tod Pickett: May God Bless and be with each and every one of you in your time of loss. I have very fond memories of Tod and remember just how important family was to him. May you cherish each and every day you had with him. Smile and laugh when you remember him. In 39 years, he left a mark of those who loved him. With my deepest condolences, Tammy "Thompson" Milburn

“ Words can't describe the way we feel. By now you know we weren't able to get home. For that I apologize, but that doesn't mean the feelings are not there. Tod wasn't only family, but someone I had a special feeling for and loved in my special way. Tody is now ok. He will want for nothing in the future, but we will live with the void of his leaving us. I'm a believer that everything happens for a reason and I'm sure the lord has his reasons for taking him so young. I wish I was there to help in your time of need. Remember I'm a just call away. We love you Tod

“ Tod, You will be sadly missed by the the guy's who set up targets for FCVCC monthly archery shoots. I was always impressed how you treated your son Jeremy and included him in on your time together. Thanks for role modeling for him and for passing on the hunting & outdoor hertiage to him. In the next couple of months , we will back to setting up targets and will take time in the peaceful woods to reflect and remember how hard you toiled with us , to make our club shoots the best. Target # 1 is dedicated to you this season, hope I can score a 11 at each shoot. In closing The Madison County Chapter of the Wild Turkey Federation expresses our condolences to your family. Thanks again Tod for sharing apart of your life with us all.

“ Tod, Thanks for being a friend and a brother to me. I was moved and inspired by your life and your love for life, and your determination to win as you stared death in the face. You won, my brother. You fought the good fight, you ran the course, you finished the race. May you rest in peace as you receive your eternal reward for your faith in Jesus Christ. Find me a fishing hole! I'll see you in heaven. Angie, Jeremy, Abby, Tod loved each of you with love that is rare and deep. Cherish his memory and honor his love by loving one another and all those you come across. You are all in my heart. Tom and Janice, May God grant you peace in the midst of your grief. Tod loved you and was inspired by the changes he saw in your lives. You, too, are in my prayers. To all the family, Thank you for the privilege of sharing Tod's final hours with you. Because of Him, Pastor Don
