“ Please keep the memories alive for me (Brittney Tranbarger) I miss my dad lots and there's not a single day that goes by that I don't think about him. I'm nearly 20 now and I was 6 when he passed. To this day it still seems so unreal.

“ I know it's a few days late, but sitting here this morning by the river my week seems to make perfect sense ...we would have celebrated your Bday and I can still see your smile and I can't help but wonder why almost 13 years since you've been gone do I weep knowing that this deployment last until I'm called for duty..... You still have my heart and I don't think I'll know what a day not missing you will ever feel like....

“ It's been 12 years and I still can remember Todds smile. Todd was the greatest man I ever knew, he was my Hero from the moment he walked into my life in Philadelphia. I adored him and I know that there isn't a day that I don't miss him. My thoughts are still with you all.

“ I am so sad to hear of the loss of your son. We will never know why nor our we to judge but I do want to give my prayers to you and his daughter as you are going through this rough time. I'm atotal stranger to your family but do have morals and want you to know I care when I read the story. He\'s now in a much better place than here but it\'s hard to understand right now. And may God be with your family today and always. Sincerely, Debbie
