“ This young man was like a son to me. He and Cody were like brothers, inseparable for so long. I always felt nothing but love for him, even when the those two were up to mischief.What a great kid. I always loved having him around. I am sure he grew in to a fine young man. My heart is heavy with sadness for everyone who loves him. My GOD grant you comfort and peace. I hope they allow skateboarding in heaven.

“ I am so sad and shocked to learn about the loss of Travis. His family and friends - you have my condolences and deepest sympathy. Those I know, even though it has been many years, Helen, Nancy, Todd, Danielle and Steve I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. I hope the beautiful smiling young child I once knew is at peace and that each of you will find healing in the days to come. Much love.
