“ When I first met Tyler he must have been 6 or 7 years old. To me he was always a eager young man and genuine respect for the ministry. For many years I saw him grow into a fine young man. I, as all, thought Tyler would have an extended future filled with many worldly accomplishments. Although my question as to why Tyler had leave us so early is not satisfied by this ultimate conclusion, we can say, God must have needed him more than we can understand. I have been blessed to have knowm Tyler Joseph Hatheway: a true Christian. I beleive Tyler has been a Jesus influence on many lives and I beleive he will continue to do so. Tyler has heard the voice of Jesus who also beckoned John to "come up hither, and I will show thee things."
