“ It is with sadness that I remember my dear friend Val. I have truly enjoyed getting to know her better these past few years and I wish we had started our special friendship years before. We had some really fun times going out to dinner out with the girls mom and Jackie and just visiting at her dining room table with kitty Grey or out on the back patio, and just watching TV together. I will remember her the best all dressed up with makeup and jewelry and her eyes sparkling. I will miss her great cooking... especially beef & noodles and BLTs. She was so full of life and thoughtful. She will always have a special place in my heart. I am thankful that she is now enjoying peace with the Lord and living in a world of glory. She deserves it. I will miss you Val. Love, Kendra
