“ I didn't know Ray until him and Michelle got married. I got used to being around him. Then he was like my best friend. He gave me a little nick name and now since he passed away, I don't like people calling me the nick name Ray gave me because he gave me the name, not anyone else. I loved him so much. I miss him a lot. I LOVE YOU RAY! Pudgy George

“ To the Ray Smith family, It is a great sorrow to my heart to hear about Ray's passing. It is a great loss to you, and me, and many others as well. He was a great man and a very close friend of mine. Even though we never met personally, he helped me through alot in my life, and i will miss him deeply. He will forever be in my heart. Tammy
