“ I was on a trip when Velma died and want to extend my sincerest sympathies in the death of your sweet Mother. I remember when she invited our Care and Share group into her home for wonderful refreshments. She was a special lady. God bless and bring you peace. Sincerely. Joyce Snow

“ 'Aunt' Debbie, So sorry to here that Velma passed away. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. Was telling my wife that she would give me a jar of sweet pickles every summer. Great to have those memories. Love, Leland and family

“ I am greatly saddened and send my deepest heart felt sympathies to Miss. Velma's family, especially the very kind Debbie Hoppes. My heart weighs heavy, but I just know Miss. Velma is now walking with God, and now a beautiful angel, meeting up with her beloved husband. Miss. Velmas picture will remain where it has been kept, in my bible, and she will live on in my and my daughters memories, always. Rest in peace, we love you, Miss. Velma.
