“ Vicky was my friend for almost 40 wonderful years. She was a friend to everyone, never meeting a stranger. We learned to dance together, went on many trips, and celebrated our families milestones. We visited every week for many years. She was always my champion - I could do no wrong in Vicky's eyes. She loved her family, and they loved her in return. I feel like I was part of that family. We will all miss her every day. Suzi Robbins

“ To the Family of Vicki, I am so sorry for your loss, but what a wonderful lady she was. i have such good memories of her while living on Hamilton Place and how my boys would ride their bikes down the sidewalk... and talk with her while she was out in yard. She had the prettiest Lilac bushes.... in the spring. She said she was always tickled by what my boys would talk about....as they were only 6 and 4 at that time . May God comfort you in this time of loss. Melanie and Brian Cook

“ *Linda, Angi, Andrea, Trent...and the whole family.
I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Grandma Carter! She was such a great lady and I have so many fond memories of her when I was younger. I will never forget her "snack/treat" drawer! I will say prayers for all of you!*

*Love You
