“ I have known Vikki for many many years but I don't think that I really knew her until she shared with me a poem she had written. She sought peace in her life. I am comforted to know that my friend found that peace with Bill and was able to spend the rest of her days here on this earth with such a loving and compassionate man. She was such fun to be around and her spirit will live on in all those whose life she touched. Lynn Scott
