“ Sorry to hear of your loss. I have some great memories of your whole family at Barbee. We had some deep and great conversations. Sorry to miss the opportunity to share those wonderful times but I'm in Atlanta for the holidays.

“ Karin - My condolences on your mother's passing. She was a lovely woman and we were all lucky to have Virginia in our lives. When I think of the times, so long ago now, when we were all young together, your Mom and Dad are a big part of those memories.

Virginia & Keith put up with a lot from the friends of you three girls, especially - getting ready for an important basketball game, hauling us all around, etc. But, I think they loved it - just as they loved their families and their friends. They were truly part of the Greatest Generation.

You will miss her - as will we all.

Love & sympathy to you and the family - Marilyn (Dickey) Flack

“ Kathy - My condolences on the passing of your Mother. Although her passing may be a blessing if she was suffering, I know it is still a difficult time for you and your family. Hope you have many memories to cherish of your time with her and your family.

I am currently out of town and unable to attend the services. Marilyn has been notified and will be posting a message soon.
