“ Virginia, like a sister. looking back on so many memories since we met there in Anderson In. when I was around 11 years of age. With momma's help I was gave the ok to baby sit her children at my home for a while. Not long after came sometimes I was asked to baby sit the kids while mom and dad headed out to the races for an evening out. Years past, and more children. Hard times for Virginia making ends meet by taking in washing and Ironings living in an upstairs home. That didn't hesitate her love for her children. She gave to them and would do without. Time passing Virginia was always such a beautiful lady She met a feller and shared a child her youngest daughter. Luck came for Virginia and praise God she was able to have a job with benefits for the family. For me back when I was 18, I met one of her brothers, Yep, I met and married that brother James. I then became her sis-in-law, and I loved her and all the family. Even after the passing of James in 1989, and my meeting and marrying another one that took my eye. My heart tie was continued. Our family have and will always be family. You put your hand to the plow and never looking back. Well, done, good and faithful servant. Finally, there is laid up many crowns in Heaven for you. Your love remains with all that know you. Love and prayers to all the family, Joyce Kelley Crouch Bennett.
