“ Just a quick note to let our cousins and their families know how much we loved Aunt Jenny. She was as beautiful inside as she was outside and her beauty and wonderful personality was always shining brightly. She will be missed not only by her immediate family but by those of us who loved her from a distance. Rest in peace, Aunt Ginny, knowing that there are many here on earth that loved you and that in heaven, there are many who have been waiting for you to join them. Those of us who are left behind love you very much and acknowledge that someday we will all meet again. Love, Bob and Louise's children, Edna Louise, Virginia Ann, Louis Milton, Sallie Marie and Raymond Gilbert Griffin
