“ Vivian is a fine lady, one of respect and good nature. She carries a calming but loving smile on her all the times that I seen her. My final words here are more for comfort and the promise of eternal life that Vivian is enjoying at this time. The sun is shinning today and what a sign of Glory that the Angels are welcoming Vivian home with her Lord. My prayer is that as time goes on, that you will find comfort in the hope that Vivian is in the arms of her Savior Jesus Christ, pain free, and enjoying her mansion that He went and built for her. My prayer is also that you cling to the promise that you will join Vivian again and walk the streets of gold. As Christians we look at this as a Celebration, but let me assure you that even though we are celebrating, it is ok to shed a tear, and lean on loved ones in this time of need. I will continue to lift the family and friends of Vivian in prayer. In Christ Love Bob Hendrickson

“ My "mamaw" is whole again and feeling free. She will be missed dearly but we all know she is in a better place.
