“ In August of 1970, I moved to Frankton, In. This was my first year of teaching, and my first move away from home. A little overwhelmed, I was close to going back home, but one day Rev. Plunk came to school to meet me. Mary and Rev. Plunk were so kind and loving. I am so blessed to have been under his teaching for many years. You will be missed but I know heaven is rejoicing. Marilyn, you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Brenda Smith
