“ If it wasn't for Dave Hammond, myself and many others wouldn't be where we are at today. Dave taught me and many others the great trade of being an electrical lineman.

Dave took me under his wing the first day I started working with him at Pendleton Power & Light teaching me how to be a great lineman. I enjoyed the 9 1/2 years I worked with Dave before he decided to hang up his "hooks" and retire. I can't say enough great things & thank you's to Dave. He was a great mentor, friend, and father figure!

We all will miss you.

“*Dave will be dearly missed. To quote Brandon Hallowell, "Dave and Pat treated us all like family". As the girlfriend of a P-Town Mudder,my entire teenage years were spent with my days and nights at Dave's garage. Dave was amazing with a heart of gold. I know alot of boys that became better men because of Dave. I'm so sorry Pat - I know you're heart hurts but may you find comfort knowing he's in good company. Thinking and praying for you all. “ Dave was an awesome man and mentor. We all called him "Uncle Dave" and he lived up to the name. I spent many of days and nights at his house and shop. I built my first engine by myself there but if I had questions all I had to do was go and ask him, he always had the answer I needed. He and Pat treated all of us as if we were family. I still have my mud truck and still run it a few bogs a year. I have relocated to Texas now and work on it in a different shop but I have never forgotten what I learned from Uncle Dave. I DON'T open my toolbox in their shop, I leave it cleaner than I found it, I help others with their trucks, and I don't tie up a bay overnight without prior permission. I have had several compliments on the way I do my work in their shop both mechanically and ethically and I have always given the credit to Dave for what I learned in Dave's Garage. I do miss those days.

A couple of the friends I run with now know that if you don't work the steering wheel in the pit you will get the same talking to from me that I used to get from Uncle Dave. They know his name but unfortunately they never got to know the man.

My heart goes out to the family

We will all miss him

“ I could write a lot about Dave and my relationship with him. I'll let it suffice to say that he was a friend, mentor, father figure, employer, long time friend of the family. He changed my life fundamentally. His father, Bill, drove my school bus when I was in the first and second grades at Pendleton. Great man, They don't make them like him anymore. He'll be missed by loved ones and society in general. Condolences to the family. Love, Dave Shultz
