“ I have known Bill for as long as i can remember. Our parents ran together when they were young. So naturally we grew up together in the younger years. We also attended St. Ambrose catholic school together for several years. My grand mother dated his Grandfather for years until his death. So even though we were not Close close any more, we are still friends, and almost like family. I always enjoyed catching up with Bill when we would run into each other. The last time i saw him he was enjoying his Harley, and we talked about his mustang and other possible projects! See ya buddy. you will be missed.

“ *Devie, Dustin n family. Words cannot express how deeply sorry we are for your loss. I remember the day your whole family came to church n then to our house for Sunday dinner. I never will forget what Bill said to me about the “mashed potatoes”, he said Annie these mashed potatoes are REAL mashed potatoes not them kind out of a box. I said yes, Bill said I knew it my mom always fixed real mashed potatoes, I can tell. That is a nice memory of that day. You all are in my thoughts and prayers and have mine n Grandpas deepest sympathy. May God grant you all peace, comfort and strength today and in the days ahead.
Love n hugs Grandma n Grandpa Ring*
