“ What a treasure earth has lost and heaven has gained. What rejoicing there must be in heaven for this saint at last at home. We are praying for God's comfort for the family and friends left behind. We love you and hold you close in our hearts. May God bless and be with you.

“ Finally Home When engulfed by the terror of tempestuous sea, Unknown waves before you roll; At the end of doubt and peril is eternity, Though fear and conflict seize your weary soul. When surrounded by the blackness of the darkest night, O how lonely death can be; At the end of this long tunnel is a shining light, For death is swallowed up in victory! But just think of stepping on shore and finding it heaven! Of touching a hand and finding it God's! Of breathing new air and finding it celestial! Of waking up in Glory and finding it home. - L.E. Singer

“ What a legacy this saintly Man of God leaves behind. He set an example for all of us & will be greatly disappointed if we don't meet him in Heaven someday!! No one loves their family any more than he did. What wonderful, loving care Jean gave to him for all of these years. A new chapter of her life now begins & a big hole is in it, but God will ease this pain because she serves the same God that Freeman served. We love all of you & we are here if you need us.
