“ My sympathies to Bill's family. I worked in the sheet metal shop with Bill in 1952/53. I was right out of high school and never met a nicer more knowledgable man. He helped me a lot. Sorry to hear of his passing

“ Dear Aunt Elsie, Judy, Betty and all of the family, We are with you in spirit as you honor a very special man. Uncle Howard was always fun to be around, even long after we outgrew the home movies run backwards! He so clearly loved his family. And I don't know any man with a kinder, easier smile. We'll never forget him, and we know we'll see him again! Right now, he and Mother are probably having a cup of coffee together -- and maybe peanut brittle too! Love to all of you, Elaine and Al

“ Judy and Betty, We regret that we cannot see you Thursday. We will be out of town. We have been able to hear about your parents as we have breakfast with a group of people from the Chesterfield Christian Church. Please extend our sympathies to your mother and to you and your families. Ernie & Jane Clashman and family

“ Dear Aunt Elsie and Girls - Jeffrey and I are sending you all our love and wish we could be with you. I have fond memories of beagle puppies, movie presentations at your house of Betty Jo and Judy when they were small and Uncle Howard's great smile and his special way of telling a story, just so! Jeff especially enjoyed meeting you all and sharing our pictures of Egypt with you. Uncle Howard will be in our hearts forever and we are sending you all our sympathy and love as you will need it. Wish we could be there to hug you all - love, Jeannie, Jeff and Family
