

Wilma D. Mosley

January 19, 1927 - December 7, 2018

Wilma D. Mosley, 91, of Anderson, passed away on December 7, 2018 at the IU Health Ball Memorial Hospital. She was born on January 19, 1927 in Pendleton, Indiana to the late Hobart and Venice (Brown) Steves.

Wilma married her high school sweetheart, Jim Mosley, in July 1946. She became a homemaker for the rest of her life. She loved bowling and was an avid sports fan.

Wilma is survived by her son, Jim D. Mosley of Anderson; Daughter, Jill (Larry) Ervin of Middletown; grandchildren, Matt, Rachael, Jordan, Brodie, and Tess; two great-grandchildren; sisters, Treva (Charles) Lacey, Lois (Jack) Hite, and Helen (Larry) Fricke; sister-in-law, Martha Cope; and also several nieces and nephews.

Along with her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a daughter, Judy Vanduyn, grandson, Jeff Vanduyn, sister, Judy Steves, and brother-in-law Jack Cope.

Private services will take place.

www.loosecares.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Enchanted Cottage was purchased for the family of Wilma D. Mosley.

December 13, 2018 at 02:57 PM

“ My Aunt Wilma was such a kind, warm person, who always made me feel special. Her daughter, Jill, and I grew up together so I would spend the night many times at their home. Aunt Wilma would read to us, brush our hair, and make us Ovaltine as a treat. I will carry those happy memories, and many more, with me always.

Jennifer Hunter

Jennifer Hunter - December 07, 2018 at 11:32 PM