“ Dear Aunt Marjorie, Connie, Cathy, Aunt Helen, Uncles Henry and Owen. I am sad to learn of Uncle Winfred's passing. I remember him as always cheerful and ready to cut up. He was always kind and good to me. May God's comfort be upon you through this period of grieving. May the memorial of his life go well Saturday. I am sorry I cannot be with you all this weekend. Our oldest son Paul is leaving Saturday for Fort Rucker, Alabama for 18 months to become a warrant officer and helicopter pilot. Also our son John is in for a couple of days to visit before returning to his senior year at Berea College, Berea, KY. We have planned to be together with them this weekend. Please excuse me for these reasons. I wish I could be two places at once. It would be enjoyable to see you all again, as well as some cousins I have lost touch with. Again may you sense God's comfort and grace through this time. Sincerely, Bruce Schroader
