“ I was saddened to here of Yalonda\'s passing. She was a very loyal customer of mine for eight years. She always told me how things were with my company\'s service, whether good or bad, which I appreciated as a salesman. I know she was very fond of her children and grandchildren. The last time I saw her was probably in late Nov. or early Dec. at the nursing home. We talked about her illness, which we had on other occassions. This day was different, before I left she asked me to give her a hug. I don\'t know if she thought we wouldn\'t see each other again, but that turned out to be the last time I saw or talked to her. I\'m sorry I didn\'t get to talk to her again but I\'m grateful for that moment. I admired the courage she showed with what she was facing.
