“ I met Yo thru our work at Vectren Dispatch just this year, but we became fast friends. She will be remembered for her kind heart and a willingness to help others whether at work or on a personal level. She is deeply missed, my thoughts and prayers for Kyle, Erin and her boys.

While Yo and I did not always see eye to eye it was well known by me that Erin, Kyle, and Erin's two boys were her life. She never failed to let me know about Erin and her business. Always brought art that Kyle drew to show me, And she would always share her adventures with her grandsons. She was so very proud of all of them and never hesitated to brag and show her love for them. Yo also knew I was an Alan Jackson fan and kept me informed of concerts, the fan club, and would always proudly bring in any paraphernalia she received and would rub it in my face that she was a better fan than I was, which was very true. Yo will be missed a great deal. Prayers to all the family.

Yo was such a delight. She always had a great smile and was upbeat. Worked with her in Fishers and when she transferred to Evsnsville I would run into her there it was old home week as we had a lot in common. Prayers for her family. Yo will be missed especially her smile.
