“ Julie I am so very sorry about your loss. I can only imagine Bert and Zach spending time together in Heaven now. When, I lost Dad I remember feeling like it was all just a nightmare and then when I realized it wasn't just a dream gone crazy, I just wanted the whole world to stop. God taught me a great lesson thru the loss of my Dad, a lesson that seems as fresh to me today as it did the day I learned it! My Dad was still with me. He just was watching from a different location. No parent should have to bury their children. I am so broken over what you have to deal with, but we are praying and if I can ever do anything for you please let me know. God bless you, Julie

“ Julie, Chris and Ash: Zach was such a delight to be around. Always positive and funny. He used to play around with me as I drove through the neighborhood. If he was on his bike and he usually was, he would pretend to dart in front of my car and just wave and laugh as I drove by. It became a regular game that we would play. Many times he would follow my car home and spend time talking to me and the kids. He was so sweet and wanted to spend time playing with Drew or just hang out in the yard with us. We will cherish those memories of your wonderful son. Our family is so saddened by your loss. You will be in our prayers. Cheryl & Chris Taulman Sara,

“ *My daughter Bailee was a friend of Zach's and received a text from him on Monday evening. She is devastated but her faith will see her through this tough time. I pray for God's love and comfort to surround you at this time and in the coming weeks and months. I pray that you find His peace and love to help you go forward from here. Zach was a wonderful friend to my daughter...she was blessed to have his friendship and she will be blessed with memories of the good times and her new guardian angel. His life was too short, but very meaningful to so many he touched. Even in his passing, he has postively affected so many kids. From one parent to another, I can not even begin to imagine your pain. Hold onto the wonderful moments your family shared together with him - celebrate his life together and know that God holds you all in the palm of his hands today and every day and He will carry you as long as you need Him to.
