“Dear Nichter Family, I was so sad when I picked up the paper Sunday morning and saw that Dear, Sweet Zella had passed. What a beautiful written obituary you kids created in her honor, she would be so proud. I can't tell you the number of times I would be having a bad day after Max passed away, that Zella seemed to know, and would stop by for a visit. Her love and caring ways were truly a special gift. I will really miss her, but look forward to our reunion one day Love and Prayers Mary Beadle

“Hey Brenda! Just saw this news. So sorry for your loss. I have good memories of your parents watching our b-ball games, and cheering us on. They always made me feel welcome in your house and I enjoyed talking with them. They left you and your family a wonderful legacy of faith, service, and love in Christ Jesus. A Christian heritage to cherish, and be encouraged by, as you remember their Godly example. Thoughts and prayers. Carol Smith-Phillips
